WASHTON, Feb. 10.

Nominations for the House of Commons were held throughout the Dominion to-day. As far as heard from the following were elected by acclamation:

Rago, Dupont, Conservative; Huntingdon, Servet, Liberal; Leger, A. W.

Rosa, Conservative; Montreal Post,

Conservative; Nationalist; Nicolet, Dupont,

Nationalist; Rouville, Giguette, Liberal;

Independent; Yale, J. A. Mars, Conservative. So far as Manitoba is concerned the election of Rosa is a bad blow to the Liberals. H. J. Clark has retired from Prinice.

Ced. Mackend, commander of the 90th regiment, died suddenly on Sunday last of heart disease. He will be succeeded in command by Major Bowell.

Chamberlain's bill for government of Ireland has been rejected by Gladstone

Liberals. All overtures for alliance over

Russia and China addressed a large meeting at Regina on nomination day, and spoke at Moosejaw yesterday.

In addition to accommodations already made Richard, Liberal, has been returned for Berthel, and Gullbush, Conservative, Joliette. No nomination in Nicolet, as reported. Every seat in Ontario and the Maritime Provinces contested.

Conspiracy trials in Dublin proceeding.

stroyed by fire yesterday.

France and Germany.

Winning had a great murder sentence on Sunday last. The bookkeeper at McMillan's mill, named Schofield, who had been working at the books the night before, was found floating, with blood stains on the floor and leaning down to the water hole in the river. A bloody knife was also found, while the safe was stuffed of nearly $100 dollars. Men were employed all day saving life in hope of finding the body, and night watchman named Miller arrested on suspicion of committing the crime. Subsequently

Schofield turned up in Minneapolis, where he was arrested, but afterwards released. He said he fled from the city

HON. DAVID LAIRD.

Hon. David Laird has at last arrived in Prince Albert. Cast off by his political friends in Queen's County, P. E. I., who thought, and with good reason, no doubt, that Mr. Welsh was a more reliable man, he comes to try his luck with the people of Saskatchewan.

He is, doubtless, astonished at the property that has attended the Royal City since he was here last, and he will, no doubt, not fail to say so. But will he ask himself, good communications man that he is: What part have I taken in the building up of Prince Albert or Battleford, or the development of the district? What have I done that the people of Saskatchewan should elect me—the political cast-off of my native county—to the Commons? It is true I was Lord Mayor of the North West for five years, but I was paid a good salary for my services, and I drew, besides, $1,324 dollars for my expenses home to P. E. I. I say, the humblest settler in the district deserves more thanks than I do. "Will he reason thus? We do not, of course, dispute the right of the Liberal Association to nominate Mr. Laird. We leave our Liberal friends to settle that matter between themselves. But we think a gentleman of Mr. Laird's ability cannot help feeling that he is a political in-ruder in these parts.

Since Mr. Laird is here, however, and has commenced the canvass, we wish to ask him a question:

1. Does he agree with the general policy of the Liberal party, and if so, will he kindly give us his reasons.
- (a) Why he approves of Secession in Nova Scotia.
- (b) Why he approves of the Brierley in Quebec and Ontario.
- (c) Why the man who was once a "red-handed murderer" is now a martyr.
- (d) Why the Liberales preach protection in the cities and free trade in the country.
- (e) Why they support the H. B. Railway in the Northwest while they touch the subject gently in the East.
- (f) Why Mr. Mills and others of his party opposed Northwest representation.
- (g) Why Mr. Macdonald inaugurated the policy of disallowance when his Government was building the Pemmican Branch, and the little new clause the Conservatives for continuing it.
- (h) What part the Liberales have taken in the development of the Northwest.
- (i) How much of the C. P. R. would have been built to-day if Mr. Blake's "small policy" had been carried out, and what British Columbia would have done.
- (j) Was one of the Northwest here to thank for the C. P. R.
- (k) Why the Mackenzie Government did not extinguish the Halfbreed Indian title when they extinguished the Indian title.
- (l) Why the local Liberal organization visited their platform by nominating a non-resident to the highest position in the gift of the people, and why they blame the Government for doing what they do themselves.
- (m) Why they do not repudiate him or their platform.
- (n) What attitude he is allowed under Mr. Blake's "alternative policy" to change his opinions.

We pause for an answer.

Mr. LAIRD promises, if elected, to visit us once a year. How exceedingly considerate. But is this the best people of Saskatchewan can do?

"Though I have not," says Mr. Laird—in effect—"spent a great deal in the development of Saskatchewan, nor have I any intention at present to do so, I ask your support, and if you elect me I will come to see you once a year." Electors of Saskatchewan, is this your idea of Northwest representation?

MR. LAIRD AND SOME OF HIS FRIENDS.

Aside from the gentlemen who are supporting Mr. Laird because they believe him to be a Liberal, we cannot congratulate him on his retainers. The record of some of them previous to the time the rebellion broke out, is not such as to reflect credit upon them, or carry much weight in a peaceful community. They aided, by their incendiary utterances, in inducing the Halfbreeds to take up arms against the Government, and when the first shot was fired they not only deserted the misguided, and heretofore peaceful Metis, but took up arms against them. These same men are now striving to stir up bad blood between the Metis and the Government, with the view to electing Mr. Laird, and that gentleman is not a bit too conscientious or patriotic to refuse to be elected by such means. He, in fact, commenced the campaign by charging Sir John Macdonald with causing the rebellion. We, however, have no fears as to how the Halfbreeds will vote. A few hot heads may support Mr. Laird, but the great majority will support Mr. Macdonald. The Metis have found out who their true friends are. They wish, in future, to live in peace with their English-speaking neighbors and the Government.

As for Mr. Laird's political career, while it has not been as brilliant as that of a great many men whose names we might mention, it must be conceded that up to 1873, when he was elected to the Commons, he did good service to his native Province. But there is one stain on his record as a public man and as a citizen of a free country, previous to the time he left never to return, that is the unpardonable act he inspired upon the religious of his Catholic fellow-citizens, and to which he proved himself a big game of the worst type. After P. E. I. Island entered the union, and at the first election to the Commons, Mr. Laird was elected as an Independent, but he sold himself for a consideration to Hon. Alex. Mackenzie. The other business of Mr. Laird's action can only be followed when we remember that when Prince Edward Island entered the Confederation the Conservatives were in a majority, and might have elected straight out Conservatives, but they did not wish at that time to take sides in Dominion politics. Mr. Laird's action, therefore placed the Conservatives in a false light. He has not been able to get the nomination for his native county since, showing that both Liberales and Conservatives have no faith in him. They evidently believe that a man who will sell himself once will do so the second time. Not being able to secure a nomination at home, he was only too glad to receive the Liberal nomination for Saskatchewan, and he is now going about the country discussing on political righteousness—their, who sold his friends for place and power, the most contemptible thing of which a politician can be guilty. But we want no tongue-cutting politician to represent us. We can respect a man who is true to his commitments, no matter what their price, but we despise a man who will sell his friends for any price. The people of Saskatchewan are, therefore, being asked not only to elect an outsider, but a man who was false to his friends, and a man who, in his anxiety for an opportunity to sell himself again, is willing to go to any length, even to stirring up blood between the Halfbreeds and the English-speaking people of Saskatchewan. As a Canadian citizen we respect Mr. Laird, and as a sincere wisher we advise him to cease a struggle that can only result in our welcoming defeat.

"People of Saskatchewan," says Mr. Laird in effect—"if you elect me I shall spend my $1,000 indemnity in Prince Edward Island."

REFORM PRINCIPLES.

1. The Reform platform, so far as we are concerned, is to elect the scoundrel and battered planks, seems to be about this:
1. Nova Scotia must secede from the Dominion.
2. Kiel was a hero, a patriot and a martyr. (Mr. Blake once characterized him as a red-handed villain and offered $5,000 for his head.)
3. The National Policy must be destroyed.
4. The Pacific Railway is a bad thing.
5. Sir John Macdonald is growing old.
6. The French Canadians are not half so bad as the Grits said they were.
7. We keep mum about free trade in cattle.
8. The Hudson's Bay Railway will be good for the west, but bad for the east.

These are the unalterable opinions of the party, but if it is decided that they can be changed for Mr. Blake's alternative policy.

PREACHING VS. PRACTICE.

Electors of Saskatchewan, please make note of this:—One of the planks in the Grit platform, and one stolen from the Conservatives, too, is that public offices in the Northwest Territories should be filled by residents within the District where such offices are located, but scarcely has the ink that recounts that declaration dried than they nominate for the highest public position in the gift of the people a gentleman all the way from Prince Edward Island, and present him to you as a living monument of their own inconsistency. Mr. Laird's nomination is an insult to the intelligence of the Liberales of Saskatchewan inasmuch as it is an admission that they have not within their party resident here one qualified to represent the district in the House of Commons, an insult which, if we mistake not the temper of many of our Liberal friends, will be deservedly resented on the 14th of next month.

GRIT TIMBER GRABBERS.

When Sir John Macdonald was in power before 1873, public competition was the policy in relation to timber limits, and no one could get a timber limit by any other means. When Mr. Mackenzie succeeded to power he repudiated the Act relating to public competition, and passed an Act giving himself authority to dispose of timber limits any way he thought fit, and he did not forget to exercise that power in the interests of his friends. Just before he gave up the reins of office after his overwhelming defeat, he passed an Order-in-Council giving to Cook & Sutherland 200 square miles of timber limits throughout the Northwest, not requiring them to survey them or put up limits as is now the rule and giving them three years in which to select the timber in twenty-mile blocks. Sir John, however, repudiated the order, which must still be so, but he continued the policy of the previous government long enough to have the satisfaction of leaving the Grits denouncing to the most vigorous terms the policy inaugurated by Mr. Mackenzie. You see what a virtue in a Grit is very much in a Tory. Our Grit friends should never say anything about policy.

In the "Scissors of the National estate" our Grit friends are anything but novices. Mr. M. C. Cameron and Sir Richard Cartwright, two of the basest scoundrels in contemporary Canada, managed to get possession of over 12,300 acres of land in Manitoba, and a host of other Grit pariahs, among them Hon. Ben Alexander Mackenzie, have dubbed in the "National estate" more or less. But, as said before, what is wicked in a Tory is the reverse in a Grit.

ADDRESS

To the Electors of Saskatchewan
GENTLEMEN:

At the request of a number of friends in the District of Saskatchewan, I beg to offer myself as a candidate for your suffrages at the coming election of a member for the Federal Parliament.

Should I be returned as your representative I shall use every endeavor to secure the local interests of the District, and shall urge on the Government the necessity of pushing on Railway communication to Prince Albert, Battleford and Saskatoon;

The building of a bridge across the South Saskatchewan River;

The granting of assistance to the railway to Hudson's Bay;

The more liberal issue of scrip to all children of Halfbreed heads of Families born in the Territories between 1879 and 1885.

The reconsideration of the permit system by putting the liquor question to the popular vote;

The speedy payment on a liberal scale of all just claims against the Government for losses;

The granting of seed grain free, on account of the peculiar circumstances in which the settlers of this district were placed;

The amendment of the Lands Act in such manner as to secure concentration of settlement;

The granting of positions under Government to local men;

The purchasing of supplies for public purposes within the district in which they are consumed;

The formation of a Legislative Assembly for the Territories in which Saskatchewan shall have full and proper representation.

As a local man whose interests are closely identified with the future of Saskatchewan, I appeal to every elector in the district for support during the contest.

I am, gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
D. H. MACDOWALL.

Aux Electeurs du District de Saskatchewan.

MESSIEURS:

A la demande d'un nombre d'amis du District de Saskatchewan, j'ai bien l'honneur de m'offrir à vous comme candidat; sollicitant vos suffrages dans l'élection prochaine d'un membre pour le Parlement Fédéral.

Dans le cas où je deviendrais votre représentant, je m'engage à faire tous mes efforts dans l'intérêt du District et de presser le Gouvernement sur la nécessité des communications par voies terrestres avec Prince Albert, Battleford et Saskatoon;

De l'érection d'un pont sur la Branche Sud de la Saskatchewan;

De l'assistance dans le chemin de fer de la Baie d'Hudson;

De la concession plus libérale de scrip aux enfants des familles Métis dans les Territoires depuis 1879 jusqu'en 1885;

D'une nouvelle considération du système de permis en soumettant la question de l'impôt à la voix du peuple;

Du paiement prompt et libéral de toutes justes réclamations, pour pertes;

D'accorder gratis les grains de semence distribués aux cultivateurs de ce district, vu les circonstances particulières dans lesquelles ils se trouvent;

D'amender l'Act des Terres, afin de permettre la concentration des établissements;

De nommer des personnes du lieu pour remplir les positions du Gouvernement;

D'acheter les marchandises des Indiens aux travaux publics, dans le district même où elles sont consommées;

De former une Chambre Législative dans les Territoires à laquelle Saskatchewan sera fortement représentée.

Compte étant un homme du local d'un des rapports entre les intérêts personnels et la future prospérité de la Saskatchewan sont suffisamment établis, je fais appel à chacun des électeurs du district, sollicitant leur support durant la contestation.]

J'ai bien l'honneur d'être,

Messieurs,
Votre humble serviteur,
D. H. MACDOWALL.

THE BRIBERY ACT.

Following is a synopsis of the law pertaining to corrupt practices at Federal elections in the N. W. Territories (vide "The Northwest Territories Representation Act, 1886," and applied Acts.)

PERSONATION.—Every one who tenders a vote in some other person's name, whether the latter be living or dead, or if the name be that of a fictitious person, or having once voted, tenders a vote at any election, is guilty of personation. Penalty, fine not exceeding $500 and imprisonment for not exceeding six months.

Every one who is on the trial of an elector person found by the report of the Judge to have been directly or indirectly guilty of personation or of counselling or procuring same shall be incapable of being elected, or sitting in the House, for an electoral district during the continuance of the Parliament for which such election is held, etc., etc.

DRINK, ETC.—No candidate shall at any election, nor shall any other person, either provide or furnish drink or other refreshment at the expense of such candidate to any elector during such election, or pay for, procure, or engage to pay for any such drink or other refreshment.

EXCESS, ETC.—None of these shall be furnished, carried, worn or used on election day, nor within eight days before it, within the district. Penalty, fine not exceeding $100, or imprisonment not exceeding three months, or both.

The sale or gift of spirituous liquors or strong drink at any tavern, shop, etc., on election day is prohibited. Penalty, $100 for every offence, or imprisonment not exceeding six months.

BRIBERY.—The following persons shall be guilty of bribery:—

1. Every person who in any manner gives, lends, or agrees to give or lend, or offers or promises any money or valuable consideration, or promises to procure, or to endeavor to procure the same to or for any voter, or any one on his behalf, in order to induce him to vote or refrain from voting, or corruptly gives, lends, etc., (as above) on account of such voter having voted or refrained from voting.

2. Same as (1), inserting in place of "money or valuable consideration" the words "offer place or employment."

3. Every one who acts as set forth above (1 and 2) to induce any person to procure, or endeavor to procure, the return of any person to sit in the House of Commons or the vote of any voter.

4. Every person who upon or in consequence of any such gift, loan, offer, promise, procurement or agreement, procures or engages, or promises or endeavors to procure, any such return or vote.

5. Every person who advances or pays in any way any money to or to the use of, any other person intending same or art thereof to be expended in bribery or corrupt practices, or knowingly receives any such money, and any person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall also be liable to forfeit the sum of $200 and costs of suit.

But the personal expenses of the candidate and payments for other services, shall be held to be expenses lawfully incurred.

Any voter who before, during, or after an election, receives any of the above considerations, office, place, etc., in any manner for himself or any other person, to influence his vote or another's shall be deemed guilty of bribery, and be subject to the same punishment.

TAKING.—Every candidate who corruptly at any time, either before or during an election in any manner gives or provides (or is accessory thereto) or pays wholly or in part, any expenses incurred for any meat, drink, refreshment or provisions to or for any person, in order to be elected, or for being elected, or for the purpose of corruptly influencing the giving or not giving a vote, shall be deemed guilty of the offence of treating.

Punishment, $200 and costs, etc. On trial of election petition votes of those who corruptly accepted any of above shall be struck off. On nomination or polling day any such gift or any money or ticket to enable such voter to procure refreshment, whether corruptly done or not, shall be deemed an unlawful act. Punishment, $10 and costs for each offence.

UNLAWFUL INFLUENCE.—The use or threat of force, violence or restraint—the infliction or threat of infliction of injury, damage, harm or loss—any sort of intimidation, in order to induce or compel a person to vote or refrain from voting, or on account of vote given or not given, or in any way impeding, preventing, or otherwise interfering with the free exercise of the franchise by any voter, or thereby compelling, inducing or prevailing upon any voter to give or not to give a vote is unlawful influence, a misdemeanor, and any person guilty shall also forfeit $200 and costs.

HIRING TRAMS.—Hiring or promising to pay, or paying for horses, team, or conveyance, or by a candidate, or by any person on his behalf, to convey voters to or from the poll, or neighborhood thereof on election day, are unlawful acts. Punishment, forfeiture of $100. Any voter hiring any horse, cab, cart, or other conveyance for any candidate or his agent, to convey voters as above shall by that act be disqualified from voting at such election and forfeit $100.

SECURIFICATION OF PERSONATION OR PERSONALITY.—Compelling, inducing or endeavoring to induce any person to personate any voter or take a false oath, is a misdemeanor, and liable to a forfeiture of $200.

All of the above from bribery down, if wilfully done, are corrupt practices and one corrupt act may void an election. Any person other than a candidate found guilty of a corrupt practice may, during the eight years next after, be debarred the right to be elected to, and if sitting in the House of Commons, voting at any such election and holding office. Proof of perjury of witness removes such disqualification.

STEPHEN BREWSTER,
Secretary.
